

Fake News Headlines about "The Big Lie" that Former President Trump won the 2020 Presidential Election

Headline	True?	Details	More Information
 Pennsylvania has 2000 more voters listed on its election rolls which is evidence of massive voter fraud in 2020		Pennsylvania has decreased former registered voters from 2020 voter rolls, but not due to voter fraud.	Read More
 In the 2020 election Wisconsin counted 2200000 voters but only has 3129000 registered voters		A 2020 tweet claimed Wisconsin counted more votes than the number of registered voters. However, the Tweet compared the 2020 vote number of 2,208,228 registered voters, As of November 1, 2020, Wisconsin had 3,654,728 active registered voters and 3,236,836 votes had been cast.	Read More
 The Content Decree says Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger is impossible to check and match signatures on 2020 presidential ballots		Georgia election officials were accused of counting 2020 fraudulent ballots. An investigation carried out by both state and federal officials concluded that there was no evidence of any such fraud.	Read More
 Over 200000 ballots went missing in Georgia mystery into the rolls in Georgia		In 2021, Trump claimed that over 200,000 additional ballots made their way into the Georgia election rolls. The author of the info of ballots were legal ballots that were cast in the state that failed to finish counting.	Read More
 Georgia had "no way to know" if the 2020 presidential election results were accurate. Fulton County郊區郡長 claimed that only original paper ballots		Georgia's 2020 election results were off by three times, including a break down of the original paper ballots. Although the original paper images are public records, they are not allowed to be used in official vote counts, only original paper ballots are.	Read More
 The U.S. Constitution specifies that a criminal conviction for treason is needed to disqualify a person from holding office at the state or federal office		The Fourteenth Amendment does not require a criminal conviction to remove a candidate from a ballot.	Read More
 Johnson Amendment of the U.S. House of Representatives is disqualifying from serving in Congress for 20 years anyone who violates the First Amendment		Although the Congress has measures in place to prevent foreign participants from running for office, as of November 2022, Johnson has not been disqualified from the 2024 Congressional election.	Read More
 Freedom of Information Act requests show a disconnect between the beliefs of Atlanta Mayor and supporter Ray Spps and those of U.S. House Speaker Nancy Pelosi in the week before Biden's inauguration on the U.S. Capitol		To date, no evidence has supported the claim that any connection exists between Nancy Pelosi and Ray Spps. The Freedom of Information Act does not apply to Congress, as it is impossible that Pelosi's documents were obtained under the act.	Read More
 Tucker Carlson revealed credible evidence of massive voter fraud in Georgia		In 2021, Carlson made several claims based on the validity of Georgia's election results for the 2020 election. However, no credible claims have been substantiated under the act.	Read More
 As many as 2500 voters got an unexplained sentence voted in Georgia during the 2020 Presidential Election		Trump claimed that there was 2,500 felons that voted. Although Raffensperger at the time did not update on how many felons voted, he did release an analysis found that it was not possible for 74 felons to vote. Therefore, according to Trump, high numbers of felons that voted.	Read More
 Georgia had at least 5000 more voters in the 2020 election		Former President Donald Trump alleged in 2020 that Georgia had 5,000 additional voters in the 2020 election. Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger stated that the Georgia legislature informed Congress that there were no additional voters in the 2020 Georgia election.	Read More
 States knew their election results were based on incomplete and biased election fraud in 2020 election		In 2021, there were claims from former House Speaker and some of his legislative allies that Georgia's election was not accurate. The election was won by Biden. However, state election officials, including secretaries of state and others involved in the certification process, confirmed the accuracy of the outcome and upheld the election results.	Read More
 In 2020 election Biden's results show 139% of the people voted		Trump claimed that Biden was the clear winner of the election when he was 139% ahead. There is no evidence that he was 139% ahead.	Read More
 Trump was the real winner of the 2020 election		Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger debunked claims made by then-President Donald Trump, revealing that Biden had the alleged 3,000 ballots cast by individuals in the state. The actual count was about 4,000. This contradicts part of Raffensperger's testimony in the January election hearing and crosses party lines.	Read More
 Biden is the real winner of the 2020 election		Georgia Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger debunked claims made by then-President Donald Trump, revealing that Biden had the alleged 3,000 ballots cast by individuals in the state. The actual count was about 4,000. This contradicts part of Raffensperger's testimony in the January election hearing and crosses party lines.	Read More