

True News Headlines about "The Big Lie" that Former President Trump won the 2020 Presidential Election

Headline	True?	Details	More Information
 Fox News: Jeffries describes a committee as a 'select committee' on Capitol insurrection	True	In January 2022, Rep. Carolyn Maloney (D-N.Y.) introduced a bill to establish a "Select Committee on the Insurrection at the U.S. Capitol and Its Connection to the January 6, 2021, Capitol Riot."	Read more
 CNN: Biden's legal team plans to file a motion to dismiss in Georgia election fraud case against Trump	True	Then-Congressman Eric Swalwell (D-Calif.) filed a motion to dismiss in Georgia federal court against Donald Trump's legal team, represented by Rudy Giuliani and Michael Froomkin, in a case alleging election fraud, with Representative Swalwell arguing that the suit was no longer relevant because it had been settled at that time.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	In the 2020 Texas election interference case, Biden's legal team filed motions to dismiss the legitimacy of the election results, arguing that the election was stolen.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	The Illinois election interference case was dismissed, but Biden's legal team decided, per their brief, to appeal the decision, but they did not file a brief asking Judge Amy Coney Barrett, a conservative, to stay the case pending the Supreme Court's review of the case, which is currently awaiting a decision concerning the constitutionality of the January 6, 2021, Capitol riot.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Governor Bill Lee in Tennessee filed motions to dismiss the number of ballot challenges in the 2020 election, challenging the constitutionality of the state's voter ID law, which required voters to show photo identification and reducing the hours available to vote.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Donald Trump has filed multiple lawsuits in various forums challenging the 2020 presidential election, including the election of Biden and his administration, and general to halt all investigations of the election and Biden as president.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Electron workers in California filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that the election was not manipulated, and three separate motions were filed to overturn the election results, including weapons, voter turnout, and election security measures and their constitutionality, along with calls for more investigation into voter manipulation and safeguard those constitutional rights.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	The Associated Press reported that Biden's legal team filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that 20,713 voters from the 2020 election in Fulton County, Georgia, were registered to vote but did not cast ballots, and that the election was manipulated in several ways, not just through voter suppression and three separate motions were filed to overturn the election results.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	A panel voted by U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit to dismiss that Donald Trump's legal team filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that the election was not manipulated in several ways, not just through voter suppression and three separate motions were filed to overturn the election results.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Class A Bank of America employee arrested in connection to the January 6, 2021, Capitol riot, was charged with multiple counts of assault and battery, and the charges three counts of attempted entrepreneurship.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Court documents from the Department of Justice Systems Management Office show pressure faced by Novak, including conflicts between Novak and other DOJ officials during the counting of the 2020 election results.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Former Senator John C. Edwards of North Carolina filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that Speaker Pelosi and the majority party in the House violated a provision that would have prevented the established account of the election.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Opposed an appeal of impeachment, which Biden sought to overturn the 2020 presidential election results, which was overturned by the Supreme Court.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel has filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that the state of Michigan issued false certificates of election to Biden and Trump in the 2020 presidential election.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	Donald Trump's legal team filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that he was the target of voter suppression and that the investigation into his election was illegal.	Read more
 NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	The Georgia Superior Court unanimously denied the motions, finding that Trump's legal team did not have standing to file the motions, and that the Fulton County District Attorney's office had already filed criminal charges against Biden for voter suppression and voter fraud.	Read more
NBC: Biden's legal team files motions to dismiss election fraud case against Trump	True	In relation to the 2020 presidential election case, Biden's legal team filed motions to dismiss the case, arguing that the election was not manipulated by Trump, and that the election was not manipulated by Biden.	Read more